FOREWORD

Our Heritage

The founding fathers of our nation realized the value of an enlightened youth so they provided by law that education should be mandatory. In publishing the 1961 Tiger's Tale we have attempted to foster a deeper respect and appreciation for the priceless gift of education.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, Alma Mater, North Miami Junior High
Many high ideals you teach us every day as time goes by.
Let us loudly sing our praises, blue and coral to the sky,
Let the world know that we love thee, North Miami Junior High.

Many promises we make you, many dreams we will make true,
All the things that shape our future, we will pattern after you.
For the goals that give life meaning, everlasting, always high
Let us always sing thy praises, North Miami Junior High.

As we greet each new day dawning, meeting challenges anew.
Many times our thoughts will wander, North Miami, back to you.
Days of laughter, days of learning, days of friendship's truest tie
North Miami, Alma Mater, North Miami Junior High.

DEDICATION

MRS. MILDRED S. COMSTOCK

Throughout the year we've worked and slaved
With you right by our side.
You've helped, corrected, scolded, too,
And been our strength and guide.
We've looked to you for all the things
That helped us get along
And through it all you've stood by us -
Good will, kind heart but strong.
Now we've a way to show our thanks
To you, our Commy, dear,
By dedicating our yearbook to
The Lady of the Year.

SCHOOL HISTORY

From Tiger Farm . . .

to North Miami Junior High School

The site of North Miami Junior High School used to be the location of the North Miami Zoo. Its first occupants were huge galapogos turtles owned by the National Geographical Society. Gargantua and many chimpanzees were also residents, as were the only tigers believed to have been raised in captivity. The land was leased from the original owner to Mr. Roman Proske, author of "Lions, Tigers, and Me." The question of the zoo and its fate almost caused a civil war in North Miami and the city was given priority in the last sale of the land.

The city, county, and Federal Government bought the land and allocated it to the Junior High, Armory, and Municipal Pool.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,

The faculty and staff at North Miami Junior High will be able to look back on this year with pleasure and pride. It has been a very enjoyable year and reflects a feeling of true accomplishment. Instruction this year has been outstanding, and we are happy over the success of our educational innovations. Without the enthusiasm and cooperation of the student body, especially our ninth grade class, the high standards and ideals of North Miami Junior High could not have been maintained.

In this rapidly changing world there is a need for strong and able leadership. I feel certain that many of you students who have been developing initiative and a sense of responsibility, who have been forming character and opinion, will have a part in the shaping of the future.

Sincerely,

Francis Haas

CANDIDS

Let me see now - F, F, F, D, X . . .

Oh, not leftovers again!

Anyone for a chariot race?

I am NOT Mr. G. D. Stephan!

It beats going to class!

Why am I so cool?

If this doesn't balance, I'll lose mine.

I wonder who's minding the store?

Pupil Enemy Number

$$\frac{-b+\ b^2-4ac}{2a}$$

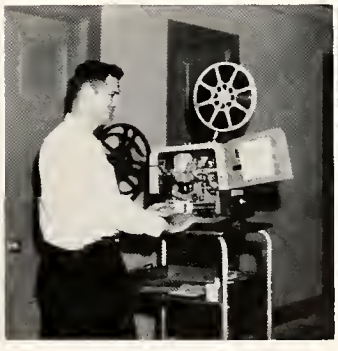
Excuses, Abuses, Excuses!

The balance of power.

Get up! I didn't hit you that hard!

The young at heart.

Any resemblance?



Genius at work.
